Fun Facts about the Kentucky Derby

As every Kentuckian knows, the first Saturday in May marks the annual Kentucky Derby race at Churchill Downs in Louisville.

While many Kentuckians may know some facts, here are many more facts that even the truest Derby fans might not know!

1. The mint julep, the Derby's traditional drink, is wildly overpriced at $11 a pop. Connoisseurs of bourbon consider it a waste of good whiskey.
2. On Derby Day the infield will hold around 80,000 revelers, making it Kentucky's third-largest city, behind Lexington and Louisville.
3. Thirteen of the 15 riders in the first Derby were African-Americans. Black jockeys won 15 of the first 28, with Isaac Murphy taking three.
4. The winning trainers in two of the first three Derbys were former slaves -- Ansel Williamson (Aristides, 1875) and Ed Brown (Baden-Baden, 1877).
5. Former major league ballplayer Hank Allen trained Northern Wolf, who finished sixth in 1989.
6. The 1¼-mile distance has been standard since 1896. The first 21 Derbys were contested at 1½ miles.
7. Dudley Allen, in 1891, was the last African-American trainer to win the Derby.
8. Since 1946 it's been run on the first Saturday in May. In 1945, the final year of World War II, the date was June 9.
9. Of 40 fillies, only three won - Regret (1915), Genuine Risk (1980) and Winning Colors (1988).

10. Fourteen female trainers have competed, with Shelley Riley (second, Casual Lies, 1992) coming closest to winning.
